

PORTABLE THEATRE LISTS ITINERARY

Six Parks in Five Boroughs,
One for Each Day, Are Chosen
by Welfare Department.

DAILY SHOWING PLANNED

Season Was Inaugurated by Mayor LaGuardia at 'Uncle
Tom's Cabin' Performance.

A more or less ideal list of thirty park sites, six for each borough in the city, at which portable outdoor theatre performances will be given during the Summer, as soon as four remaining portable theatres have been completed, was announced yesterday by the Department of Public Welfare. In each borough a different park site has been selected for each day in the week.

The portable theatre project, formally dedicated last Thursday night by Mayor LaGuardia, in Thomas Jefferson Park, at a performance of "Uncle Tom's Cabin," will include evening performances at park sites, by professional actors, and afternoon performances of children's plays, presented by amateur stock companies. A complete list of the park sites, and of nights on which they will play host to the roving drama, as soon as work on the remaining theatres needed has been rushed through to completion, is as follows:
